Daniela J. Feibusch Counsel

Daniela J. Feibusch practices in the area of real estate and not-for-profit law with an emphasis on multifamily affordable residential development. Her main areas of practice include representation of not-for-profit and for-profit developers, including joint ventures in all aspects of real estate development with a focus on the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation and preservation of mixed-use projects which include affordable housing and utilize low-income housing tax credits, municipal bonds and/or private, federal, state and local debt financing.

Prior to joining Hirschen Singer & Epstein LLP, Ms. Feibusch worked at JDF, LLC, a law firm focused on tax credit syndication and development of affordable housing. She was a Legal Fellow at Enterprise Community Partners and a Ginsberg Graduate Fellow at Citizens Housing and Planning Council. Ms. Feibusch also held a position at Local Initiatives Support Corporation as a Community Development Associate. She received her Bachelor of Arts summa cum laude from Boston University and her law degree with a specialization in the David J. Epstein Program in Public Interest Law and Policy from UCLA School of Law, where she participated in the Skid Row Housing Clinic and held internships at Public Counsel and Inner City Law Center in Los Angeles. Ms. Feibusch is admitted to practice in New York.
